

Peruvian Hercules

Hercules is a beige pure Peruvian macho from head to tail. He won the white grand champion class at the 2001 MAPACA Jubilee. His fiber was shown after his fourth shearing yielded 12 lbs of prime fleece, and he won 2nd place in the 2002 MAPACA Jubilee fleece show - the largest show in North America. He has been shown many times and has never finished out of the blue ribbons.

This macho male has extremely fine fiber, a gentle friendly temperament, and an athletic body.
